LOVE EVERYBODY?

"Not many people can truthfully assert that they love everybody. Most of us must admit that we have loved but a few; that we have been quite indifferent to the many. As for the remainder-well, we have really disliked or hated them. We AAs find we need something much better than this in order to keep our balance. The idea that we can be possessively loving of a few, can ignore the many, and can continue to fear or hate anybody at all, has to be abandoned, if only a little at a time." Reprinted from "As Bill Sees It" p. 230 with permission from AA World Services.
