INDIVIDUAL RESPONSIBILITIES:

Let us emphasize that our reluctance to fight one another, or anybody else, is not counted as some special virtue which entitles us AA to feel superior to other people. Nor does this reluctance mean that the members of AA are going to back away from their individual responsibilities as citizens. Here they should feel free to act as they see the right upon the public issues of our times. But when it comes to AA as a whole, that's quite a different matter. As a group we do not enter into public controversy, because we are sure that our Society will perish if we do." Reprinted from "As Bill Sees It", p.262 with permission from AA World Services.
