DCM report

DCM talked about the following events:

- The DCM was unable to attend meeting.

Treasurer's report:

I am Responsible. When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help, I want the hand of A.A. always to be there. And for that: I am responsible.

- Motion to accept Treasurer report, seconded, approved.
- The Treasurer investigated why a small bank charges ($2.00) were added to certain deposits made the past several months and found that deposits dropped in the Night Deposit box are subject to a $2.00 fee.

Intergroup Liaison:

- No Report

Grapevine:

- The Grapevine Rep had more info on the sale on the 1st Edition Big Book. The books are $3.00 each. Jean can order them if anyone is interested.

Old Business:

- The final plan for the district #28 participation at the “Picnic in the Park” where discussed. Brian M. and others will have a table set-up at the picnic displaying information about District #28 and they will be available to answer questions.
- Picnic date is June 1, 2024 – Aberdeen Festival Park – No rain date set.
- The discussion continues on whether we can change the District 28 meeting night to something other than Wednesday. Jenifer E. to look into availability at the present meeting location. The church reported that there is no other day available. The group will look into a solution and more will follow.
- The discussion continued about possible sponsorship of a workshop this fall. The topic of “sponsorship” seemed to be a topic of interest. The Area Workshop Committee can provide speakers. More to follow.
- Adopt a Group – Jean B. followed up on the possibility of District #28 “adopting” a non-active nearby “District” to help them get involved in the local AA service community. Jean contacted one of the Districts that are in need and was told that the District was unaware of the “offer to help” and there was no interest in being “adopted” The matter is tabled until further instruction or more information is received

New Business:

- A committee was formed to begin preparation for the Sponsorship Workshop to be held in the fall. Committee members are Mike G., Brian M., David P. and Joan N?

Meeting ended at 7:58 p.m.
